Updates from Settlement Support New Zealand – Auckland City

SSNZ Auckland City attended the Race Relations Day (21st March) celebrations at Hindu Youth Council at the Hindu Heritage Centre, Mangere. The Centre was a place for all religions and people, as they accommodated Pacific Island bible study class on a Sunday morning. A great role model for truly celebrating diversity and harmony.

Race Relations Day – 21st March 2010

This year ARMS and Human Rights Commission co-hosted a Race Relations Day event and looked at The Treaty of Waitangi in the contemporary Aotearoa/New Zealand, particularly how it applies to the contemporary multicultural Auckland. The Treaty is applicable to newcomers to this land, particularly in both Article 2 (rangatiratanga/self-determination) and Article 3 (rite tahi/equality).

Hon. Pita Sharples said in his speech at Race Relations Dinner at Orakei Marae that tangata whenua (people of the land) and Maori have the duty to make newcomers, feel and be welcome, which is an essential part of tikanga Maori (Maori customary equivalent of law). You can read the full version of his speech on <http://bit.ly/bwpECA>.

ARMS staff with Treaty Education Kit and Race Relations Report 2009

Human Rights Commission had released a report entitled Te Mana i Waitangi/Human Rights and the Treaty of Waitangi in January 2010. It is a great discussion paper which looked at the relationship of the Treaty in relations to Human Rights, policies, tangata whenua and all people of New Zealand. You can read the report on <http://www.hrc.co.nz>.

Shop Trading Restrictions

There are shop trading restrictions on Good Friday (2 April), Easter Sunday (4 April) and Anzac Day (25 April), until 1.00 pm. This means that shops must be closed for the whole day on Good Friday and Easter Sunday and until 1pm on Anzac Day, unless they meet certain exemptions. For more information: http://www.ers.govt.nz/audienceinfo/shop_print.html.

Easter and Anzac Day public holidays

The Easter and Anzac Day public holidays are just around the corner. Now is a good time to familiarise yourself with staff entitlements for these public holidays.

The public holidays over the Easter period are Good Friday (2 April) and Easter Monday (5 April). Anzac Day (25 April) is celebrated on the day it falls. This year Anzac Day falls on a Sunday. For employees who do not normally work on a Sunday, Anzac Day will not be a paid public holiday. Unlike the Christmas and New Year public holidays, there is no "Monday-ising" of Anzac Day if it falls on a weekend. For more information <http://dol.govt.nz/workplace/knowledgebase/item/1578>.

The Holidays Online Tool (<http://www.ers.dol.govt.nz/holidays-online-tool/default.aspx>) provides guidance on whether an employee is entitled to a paid day off on a public holiday and what an employee should be paid for their day off or for working on the public holiday.

Keep in mind that Easter Sunday is NOT a public holiday. This means that if your business cannot provide work for staff who normally work on Sundays due to restricted trading on Easter Sunday, then it is a good idea to plan ahead and explore options for managing employee leave entitlements for Easter Sunday. For more information <http://www.dol.govt.nz/workplace/knowledgebase/item/1245>.
